

Dance for Visitors in Berkshires Held at the Lenox Club

Mr. and Mrs. Newbold Morris Have Dinner Party—Other Entertainments.

Lenox, Mass., Oct. 9.—Clear weather, warm as midsummer, has attracted many tourists to the Berkshires and autumn entertainments are at their height.

A dance was held at the Lenox Club to-night for visitors in the Berkshire region. Mr. and Mrs. Newbold Morris entertained at dinner company at Brook-hurst for Mr. and Mrs. Pedro R. de Flores of Paris. Luncheon parties were given by Mrs. Robert Winthrop, Mrs.
Frank Sturgis, Mrs. Joseph S. Choate and Mrs. William Norton Bullard.

Mrs. Cortlandt Field Bishop arrived to-day from Paris and opened her Lenox villa for the autumn. Her mother, Mrs.
George S. Bend, of New York is with her and her daughter, Miss Beatrice Bishop, came to-day from Vassar. Mr. Bishop will arrive the last of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Parsons, who have been at Stoneover Farms since early in the season, left to-day for their place at Harrison, N. Y.

Among those who registered to-day at the Stockbridge Golf Club were Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Gould Jennings, Mr. C. Tiffany Richardson, Messrs. Meredith Howland, George H. Post and John C. White and Capt. Reginald R. Bellamy, U. S. N.

Arrivals at Aspinwall Hotel include Mrs. Charles Louis Seward and Mrs. Arthur W. Davidson of New York.

Mr. Alexander Soderwick is with the Secretary and Mrs. Banbridge Colby in Washington.

At the Red Lion Inn, Stockbridge, arrived Mr. and Mrs. Alexander C. Morgan and Mrs. Roswell Miller.

Miss Marie Bradwell of New York entertained at dinner at the Curtis Hotel.
Mrs. Hugh Monroe Wilson of New York arrived there to-day.

Caruso Never Heard
Babe Ruth Sing

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE HERALD.
OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 9.—Enrico Caruso, famous tenor, never heard of Babe Ruth and his bat, thought Babe was an opera singer of the feminine gender, didn't know Cleveland had won the American League pennant and was not even aware that a world series was in progress when questioned by a reporter this afternoon as he was passing through Omaha.

"Cleveland has won again," the reporter informed the singer during the conversation.

"I don't understand," asked Caruso.

"Why, Cleveland won another game in the world series."

"Are you talking about baseball?" asked Caruso. "I didn't know Cleveland was playing."

"Well, what do you think of Ruth?" the reporter asked.

"I will have to admit I never heard her sing," he answered.

MR. GATTI-CASAZZA
BACK FROM ITALY

General Manager of the Metropolitan Opera Returns.

The Italian liner Dante Alighieri reached port yesterday afternoon from Naples. One passenger on board was Giulio Gatti-Casazza, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company.

Mr. Gatti-Casazza said that next week he would reveal his plans for this year.

Also on board were Roberto Moranizoni, a conductor for the Metropolitan Opera Company, and Capt. and Mrs.
Pisner Andrews, who went abroad to inspect their villa at Lake Como for the first time since 1914 and found it uninjured by the war.

Mrs. H. H. Pike, Jr., has baby.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Harvey Pike, Jr., of 123 East Eighty-second street, are being congratulated upon the birth of a daughter.
Friday. Mrs. Pike was Miss Constance

Raoul Vidas, Young
Violinist, Is Again
Welcomed Here

Shows Breadth, Repose and Finish on His Reappearance at Carnegie Hall.

Raoul Vidas, a young Rumanian violinist transported early to Paris and thoroughly Gallicized, made his debut here in November, 1918, quite unheralded, and by the sheer merit of his art won substantial recognition. He was heard several times that season. Yesterday afternoon he reappeared in Carnegie Hall and was warmly welcomed.

His programme embraced the "Vitali chaconne," the first concerto of Saint-Saens, and five shorter numbers.

Mr. Vidas has a beautiful tone, a fluent and elegant style and a dignified attitude toward his art. He has technic enough for all the tricks of the virtuoso, but he seems best pleased when playing classic music, such as Vitali's, with breadth, repose and finish.

LONDON QUARTETT'S CONCERT.

In Aeolian Hall last evening the London String Quartet completed its formidable task of playing the seventeen quartets of Beethoven in their chronological order. The numbers heard at this final concert were the quartet in A minor, opus 132, the Grand Fugue in B flat, opus 133, and the F major quartet, opus 135. The audience was the largest that had attended any of the entertainments and quite filled the hall.

The task which the London players gave themselves was exacting, but as a chapter in the history of chamber music it was interesting and suggestive. It served also to show to local music lovers that London possesses a quartet of solid worth.

MR. BULLIG, PIANIST, PLEASES.

Richard Bullig, a pianist, now living in New York but formerly of Chicago, gave his only recital here this season, before making an extended Western tour, yesterday afternoon in Aeolian Hall. Last season Mr. Bullig gave seven well attended historical recitals in this city, at which he presented largely classic music.

Yesterday he played works of Beethoven, Chopin, Debussy and Liszt, the Hungarian master's contributions including his seldom heard "Chapelle de Guillaume Tell." A performer of fine intelligence but deficient in mellowness of tone and grace of sentiment, Mr.
Bullig gave a generally admirable reading of Chopin's F minor fantasy. He imbued it with a warmth he had hitherto not shown here. In the rest of his programme, and particularly in Beethoven's A flat sonata, opus 110, he firmly held the attention of his many auditors by the clarity and directness of his style.

AT UPTOWN THEATRES.

The romantic comedy, "Not So Long Ago," which ran at the Booth Theatre last season, will be the attraction at the Shubert-Riviera, this week. The Messrs. Shubert are sending the original cast to the Riviera, including Miss Eva Le Gallienne and Sidney Blackmer in the leading roles. There will be three matinees—Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Miss Marjorie Rambeau in Channing Pollock's play, "The Sign on the Door," will move into the Bronx Opera House for a week's engagement, under the direction of A. H. Woods. There will be matinees on Wednesday and Saturday, and a special Columbus Day matinee on Tuesday. A strong company supports her in this melodrama, which made a successful bid for attention at the Republic Theatre last season.

MORGENTHAU TO IMMIGRANTS.

At the concert on Ellis Island this afternoon that Commissioner Frederick A.
Wallis has arranged for detained immigrants and employees of the station Mrs. Anna Simpson, American lied-singer, will head the musical programme.
Henry Morgenthau, formerly Ambassador to Turkey, will speak. The New York Letter Carriers Band will play.

MR. AND MRS. SOTHERN HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sothern arrived yesterday on board the Aquitania from England, where they passed the summer in their home in the Midlands. They have arranged to pass the winter in Washington, and will not be seen on the stage this season. They have planned to appear every two years in Shakespearean repertoire.

MISS SCOVILLE'S RECITAL.

Miss Helen Scoville will give a piano recital in the Straus Auditorium of the Educational Alliance on Wednesday evening. There will be no charge for admission to the concert.

OPEN LIBRARY FOR BELGIAN CHILDREN

American Committee Establishes First One in Brussels.

Mrs. John Lewis Griffiths, who returned from Europe by the Olympic last week, spent much time in Belgium, where as chairman of the Book Committee on Children's Libraries she supervised the opening of a children's library and reading room September 24 at 18 Rue de la Paix, Brussels, at the request of the Child's Welfare Commission of Belgium, which visited America last year. The library is the first established in Europe on the American plan. Mrs.
Griffiths said yesterday that Queen Elizabeth received Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock and herself at the palace, and showed the deepest interest in learning that the American committee intended to present a library to Brussels.

The Minister of Science and Arts, M.
Destree, spoke at the opening, and so did Mr. Brand Whitlock, the American Ambassador, who said that "during the visit of Queen Elizabeth to America she said that it was her dream to have a children's library introduced in Belgium." "And," the Ambassador added as he looked around the room, "to-day the Queen's dream is realized."

Ambassador and Mrs. Whitlock gave every assistance in their power to the committee, as did the Brussels officials and representatives of the national Government, Mrs. Griffiths said.

The work of the book committee is to establish children's libraries and reading rooms in France as well as Belgium.
The rooms are called "L'Heure Joyeuse." They will provide also books for American soldiers and sailors in hospitals and shut-ins at home. The other officers of the book committee are: Vice-chairman, Mrs. John W. Alexander; corresponding secretary, Mrs. James Robert McKee; recording secretary, Mrs. Benjamin Morton, and treasurer, Mrs. Frederick L. Eldridge.

The advisory committee consists of Dr. Edwin H. Anderson, Mr. Melville E. Stone, Dr. George B. Kuntz, Mr. George Barr McCutcheon, Mr. William T. Carrington, Mrs. John Henry Hammond, Dr. William T. Manning, Mr. Frank A.
Munsey, Miss Anne Morgan and Miss Anne Carroll Moore.

MARCHESE'S ANNIVERSARY.

To celebrate the silver anniversary of Mme. Blanche Marchesi's debut, the famous singer, will give a recital in Aeolian Hall, London, November 4. Her pupil, past and present, and friends are taking over the business management of the recital. The programme will consist of songs that had the greatest influence in her career.
